Washington, D. C.

Dear [REDACTED]:

25X1A

You are hereby notified that the United States Government, as represented by the Central Intelligence Agency, hereby accepts your employment as a career agent, effective 6 August 1949. This letter of appointment is a temporary document evidencing the agreement between you and CIA. At a later date a more complete agreement will be presented for your signature. Under the present letter of appointment the rights and obligations of the parties hereto shall be limited to those matters set forth herein.

1. No compensation will be paid to you by CIA until appropriate amendment hereto. Where CIA directs you to perform certain services or to secure certain information, you will be reimbursed for necessary expenses incurred pursuant to such directions by CIA. Such expenses will include travel expenses where directed, entertainment, spot purchase of information and other extraordinary expenses.

2. No annual and sick leave benefits will accrue under this letter of appointment. You will be entitled to benefits equal to those authorized under the United States Employees' Compensation Act and those set forth in the Missing Persons Act of 1942. In addition you will be eligible to procure insurance currently in force by the War Agencies Employees Protective Association. Claims by you or your heirs and assigns or legal representatives under this paragraph will be processed by CIA in its discretion and in such manner as not to impair past, present or future security of the employee or CIA.

3. This contract contains information affecting the national defense of the United States within the meaning of the Espionage Act (50 U.S.C. 31 and 32, as amended). Its transmission or the revelation of its contents in any manner to an unauthorized person is prohibited by law. Violation of this paragraph or any security agreement signed by you with the Government shall result in immediate disciplinary action, which may include suspension, separation from Government service, and may subject you to criminal prosecution under the Espionage Act.

noted by Mr. Houston

a. The termination of this contract will not release you from the provisions of any security oaths which you may be required to take by CIA.

b. You shall not publish, transmit or divulge in any manner, information received by you as the result of employment by the Government under this contract without specific written authority from the Director, CIA.

4. Orders and Directives received in briefing and training shall be complied with by you. No promises or commitments to you of any nature whatsoever, beyond and in addition to the terms hereof, shall be binding on the Government unless and until such promise or commitment is reduced to writing and approved by an authorized official of CIA, and such writing placed with this contract, thereby becoming an amendment hereto.

5. Your employment hereunder shall be for such time as your services are required and appropriations are available for the functions of CIA. Under this agreement you shall be considered as a permanent employee of CIA.
